compensation for labor, which is a common right, and not a taxable event.

"wages" according to the following definitions:

Federal Register, Tuesday, September 7, 1943, 404, 104 pg 12267: Employee: "The term employee specifically includes officer and employees whether elected or appointed of the United States, a State, territory, or a political subdivision thereof or the District of Columbia or any agency or instrumentality or any one or more of the foregoing."

The emphasis was in the original, and therefore, income is corporate profits, and as a sovereign living soul, I am not, a US citizen, 14th Amendment citizen, corporation, or other fictitious entity, therefore, I have no income.

5. I, Me, My, or Myself, also known as Glenn Winningham; house of Fearn, do not have any assets. Persons and corporations have assets and I am neither. Assets are listed on a balance sheet, which shows assets and liabilities for accounting purposes for a corporation. The same holds true for income and expenses, which are also for corporations, and are part of bookkeeping by accountants where they show income versus expenses for the corporation. I am not saying I do not have property, because I do have property, but the property I have is not an asset, and I have no income or expenses because I am not a US Citizen, 14th Amendment citizen, corporation, or other fictitious entity as defined by your current and FRAUDULENT Fourteenth Amendment.

6. I, Me, My, or Myself, also known as Glenn Winningham; house of Fearn, am not a US citizen, 14th Amendment citizen, corporation, or other fictitious entity, but I am a sovereign living soul as described in the Petition. I, Me, My, or Myself, also known as Glenn Winningham; house of Fearn, am not a vessel of any kind, or a knowing, willing, intentional surety or accommodation party for any entity.

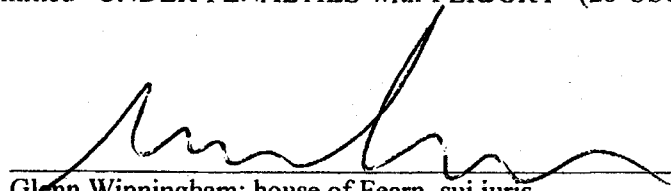

One sovereign does not need to tell another sovereign that they are sovereign, they are sovereign by their very existence. "The rule in America is that the American people are the sovereigns, and in them is lodged all power, and the agencies of government possess no authority save that which is delegated to them by the people in the written compact entered into between the people, which is styled the 'Constitution,' and the laws adopted by the representatives of the people.....consistent therewith." Kemper v. State, 138 Southwest 1025 (1911), page 1043.

12. Furthermore, pursuant to HJR 192 dated June 5, 1933, it is against public policy to pay a debt, therefore this Court could not accept payment if it was tendered, and it would be a felony for the Clerk to accept Federal Reserve Notes as a tender in the payment of a debt, therefore, even if I was subject to said taxes/fees, it is impossible to pay the fees/taxes as requested.

13. For all of the foregoing reasons, this court should ORDER the Clerk of the Court to file the Petition, and let it proceed without the payment of any fees/taxes.

All of the above is respectfully submitted "UNDER PENALTIES with PERJURY" (28 USC § 1746(1)).

President George W. Bush nominated Henry M. Paulson, Jr. to be the 74th Secretary of the Treasury on June 19, 2006. The United States Senate unanimously confirmed Paulson to the position on June 28, 2006 and he was sworn into office on July 10, 2006 by Supreme Court Chief Justice John Roberts. As Treasury Secretary, Paulson is the President's leading policy advisor on a broad range of domestic and international economic issues.

Before coming to Treasury, Paulson was Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Goldman Sachs. He joined Goldman Sachs in 1974 in the Chicago Office and became a partner in 1982. From 1983 until 1988, Paulson headed up Investment Banking Services for the Midwest Region and became Managing Partner of the Chicago Office in 1988. In 1990, he was named Co-head of the firm's investment Banking Division, and in 1994 he rose to the position of President and Chief Operating Officer. In 1998, he was named Co-Senior partner, and with the firm's public offering in 1999, became Chairman and CEO.

Prior to joining Goldman Sachs, Paulson was a member of the White House Domestic Council, serving as Staff Assistant to the President from 1972 to 1973, and as Staff Assistant to the Assistant Secretary of Defense at the Pentagon from 1970 to 1972.

Paulson graduated from Dartmouth in 1968, where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and All Ivy, All East, and honorable mention All American for football. He received an M.B.A. from Harvard in 1970. He and his wife, Wendy, have two children, Amanda and Merritt.

Dear Sirs;

As you well know, there has been a misunderstanding, on your parts, regarding the above reference.

In order to dispel any misconceptions I am writing to you in order we all understand the nature of my administrative action against you. You have claimed that I have somehow been engaged in commercial activity at the above noted property but you have not provided proof of such activity. You have presumed this commercial activity, which may have justified your attempts to have me make property tax payments on the property.

Since the commencement of my administrative action I have found other information which clearly proves your lack of jurisdiction to make any claim whatsoever on this property and other properties. It is now clear to me the only authority who might be entitled to order the payment of any type of taxes within the area in question would fall to the Autochthonous and each of you are not attempting this undertaking on their behalf, rather, you are attempting to have me join your "franchise" of usurious taxation.

This is my last attempt to instill upon you your lack of jurisdiction over the property in question and I refuse to give you such jurisdiction. I view your attempts to enjoin me to your money laundering scheme as nothing more and nothing less than extortion under color of office, with the underlying theme of constructive genocide.

Accordingly, please find attached a draft copy of a statement of claim I have been working on in the event you proceed in seizing my property for my "disobedience" in not participating in your tax and genocide schemes.

Dear Mrs. Hoverale:

This is in response to your Privacy Act request dated December 12, 1993.

The Internal Revenue Code is not positive law, it is special law. It applies to specific persons in the United States who choose to make themselves subject to the requirements of the special laws in the Internal Revenue Code by entering into an employment agreement within the U.S. Government.

The law is that income from sources not effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the U.S. Government is not subject to any tax under subtitle "A" of the Internal Revenue Code.

This concludes our response to your request.

Sincerely yours,

Cynthia J. Mills
